About the AIS

The AIS is a Dutch International Primary and Secondary School (DIPS) situated in Amstelveen. AIS is the international school department which forms part of a larger Dutch school group Onderwijsgroep Amstelland. Together we are a family of thirteen schools.

If you believe children are intelligent beings in their own right - before - they enter the school building, AIS is the learning environment you will thrive in. If you believe the world is our playground and learning does not only happen indoors... read further. If you believe educators are facilitators of exciting experiential challenges where failure is regenerated into inspiration for new ideas, AIS is definitely the school for you.

If you believe it is our duty to role model kindness, empathy and celebrate diversity, find a vacancy below which matches your expertise. The AIS is subsidised by the Dutch government, this enables us to deliver accessible high quality international education. At the AIS we teach the International Primary Curriculum (IPC).
