

Lunch time supervisor volunteers

(Paid ongoing position)

Due to the rapid growth of our school, we have the opportunity to develop a lunch time supervision team.

Start date: 2 September 2024

Salary scale according to Dutch primary school teachers labour law (CAO) upon voluntary basis.

About the AIS

The AIS is a Dutch International Primary and Secondary School (DIPS) situated in Amstelveen. AIS is the international school department which forms part of a larger Dutch school group Onderwijsgroep Amstelland. The AIS is subsidised by the Dutch government, this enables us to deliver accessible high quality international education. At the AIS we teach the International Primary Curriculum (IPC). AIS is a start up school and has recently opened its doors a year ago to a diverse community of professionals & learners.

Vision Statement

International education which inspires creative thinking, provoking children to become curious and take ownership of their learning.

Mission Statement

Amstelland International School is dedicated to establishing a learning community which empowers student voice, invests in nurturing relationships, fosters compassion for humanity and inspires a shared responsibility of our planet.

School values:

- Curiosity
- Community
- Agency
- Relationships
- Responsibility

*AIS is an advocate for child protection and safe-guarding, relevant procedures to ensure the safety of our community are conducted with care.

You need to be:

- Welcoming to diverse cultures and religions.
- Respectful and compassionate towards the children.
- Able to contribute to a compassionate school community and work as part of a dynamic and committed team.
- Flexible and open to new ideas.
- Continuously embracing new learning opportunities.
- Friendly and kind to children.
- Able to differentiate, gearing your interactions towards students with diverse academic, language, social, emotional rights.
- Compassionate and welcoming to diverse cultural backgrounds and traditions.
- Willingness to supervise and interact with all children.
- Willing to provide a police clearance from every country of employment.

Required:

- An extensive understanding of young children and their nurturing needs.
- A commitment to the school's mission, vision and school values.
- Ability to conduct one's self according to the school philosophy.
- Native speaker or fluent in spoken English.
- A European resident permit.
- Experience with engaging & working with children.
- Excellent communication skills and ability to function well within a team.
- A great sense of humour.

Address the application to Mrs L. Browne, Deputy Director of Amstelland International School.

Official applications can be sent to l.browne@ogamstelland.nl. Please include a portrait picture, CV and motivational letter.

AIS reserves the right to interview candidates before the closing date. Due to the large number of applications; should you not receive a response from our recruiting team within two months upon applying, please consider you application unsuccessful on this occasion.

For more information, please visit our website: www.amstelland-international-school.nl